WELCOME TO LI CHAI-SUM.

ENTHUSIASTIC SCENES MARK THE OFFICIAL LANDING.

WARM FRIENDSHIP SHOWN

HUGE CROWDS THROUGH THE PRAYA.

No more effective manifestation of the warm spirit of friendliness in the relations between Hongkong and Canton at the present time, could have been given than the rousing reception to Marshal Li Chai-sum, the distinguished head of the administration of Canton, who arrived in the Colony this morning to pay an official call on H. E. the Governor (Sir Cecil Clementi, K.C.M.G.).

All over the city, the Kuomintang flag was displayed and the streets in the vicinity of Queen's Pier were thronged with spectators of an event unique in the history of Hongkong since the establishment of the Republic of China.

Utmost Cordiality.

The utmost cordiality pervaded the whole proceedings, and the occasion may be said to mark a gratifying step towards the mutually desired resumption of normal intercourse between the two ports.

Marshal Li Chai-sum came to the Colony as one who is on the friendliest of terms with the British Administration, and the warm greetings conveyed will leave an indelible impression of Hongkong's sincerity in the desire for a complete rapprochement. The occasion of Marshal Li Chai-sum's official visit is the more important because the Southern leader is to confer with H. E. the Governor on matters of vital concern to Canton and Hongkong.

The Arrival.

Marshal Li Chai-sum arrived in the Colony at about 9.30 a.m. this morning on the Chinese gunboat "Felying," which took up a buoy in the man-o-war anchorage. Gun salutes were exchanged.

The official landing was made at 10.30 a.m., the distinguished visitor and his party being conveyed to Queen's Pier on the launch "Victoria," escorted by a police launch. Marshal Li was attired in the conventional frock coat and silk hat.

Drawn up outside Queen's Pier was a Guard of Honour from the King's Own Scottish Borderers, while the full band of the regiment was also paraded.

The Official Party.

Marshal Li's party consisted of Madame Li Chai-sum; Mr. Chu Chao-hsin, Foreign Minister to the Southern Government, and former Chinese Minister to Rome and delegate to the League of Nations; Admiral Chan Chat, Chief of the Naval Department; Mr. Li Man-yin, director of the Canton Revenue Council, and Mrs. Li Man-yin; Gen. Chang Hui-cheng, head of the Aviation Department; General Hsu Ching-tang, commander in chief of the troops of the Eastern Army; and Commander Chang Hing-wan.

Madame Li Chai-sum and Mr. Chu Chao-hsin were conducted by Capt. H.B.L. Dowling to a waiting car and drove away, while Marshal Li and others in his party were introduced by His Excellency the Governor to those assembled on the pier.

On leaving the pier, Marshal Li Chai-sum was greeted with a gun salute, played by the band of the King's Own Scottish Borderers, and accompanied by H.E. the Governor, Colonel Comyn, Capt. White, A.D.C., and Marshal Li's A.D.C., he inspected the guard of honour and his party being conveyed to Queen's Pier on the launch "Victoria," escorted by a police launch. Marshal Li was attired in the conventional frock coat and silk hat.

In a second car were Commander Chan Hing-wan, Mr. Chu Chao-hsin, and Mr. Luk Yam-ko King's Own Scottish Borderers, (from the Secretariat of Chinese Affairs), and in another General was also paraded.

ROBBING PETER TO PAY PAUL.

U.S. NAVAL COMMITTEE DECISIONS.

FURTHER REDUCTIONS IN U.S. NAVAL DEMANDS.

RANGE OF BIG GUNS.

Washington, March 1. Further reductions in the demands of the Navy Department have been made by the Naval Committee of the House of Representatives. To-day they reduced Mr. Wilbur's demand for the appropriation of $34,670,000 for the renovation of five capital ships, to $14,800,000.—Reuter's American Service.

Mr. F. A. Britten, a Republican member of the Naval Committee, has decided that part of the reduced appropriation should be applied to increasing the range of the main armament of the battleships Pennsylvania and Arizona by 16,000 yards.

These ships have twelve 15-inch guns, with a maximum range of 15,000 yards.

The 16-inch guns on the latest American battleships have an elevation of thirty degrees and an extreme range of 33,000 yards.

Mr. Britten pointed out that the change would prevent these two ships from being outranged by those of any other Power, and will also make the extreme range of all the United States battleships approximately equal.—Reuter's American Service.

NO OFFICIAL FILM CENSORS.

PRESENT SYSTEM USUALLY ADEQUATE.

London, Mar. 1. That the Government proposes to take no further action on the Nurse Cavell film controversy was indicated in the House of Commons to-day, when several questions were put to Sir William Joynson-Hicks, the Home Secretary, suggesting "in view of recent events" the desirability of appointing an official film censor.

Sir W. Joynson-Hicks replied expressing the opinion that the present system generally secured an adequate standard. The present Board of Film Censors is a voluntary organisation appointed by the film trade.—Reuter.

EMPIRE AIR FORCE CO-OPERATION.

SIR JOHN SALMOND TO VISIT AUSTRALIA.

London, Mar. 1. The Air Ministry announces that in response to the request from the Australian Government for the loan of the services of a senior officer of the Royal Air Force to advise them, Air-Marshal Sir John Salmond has arranged to visit Australia.

He will advise the Australians regarding air defence and the organisation, training and equipment of the Australian Air Force. It is expected that he will leave in the summer and will remain for about three months.—Reuter.

TERRIBLE DISASTER IN MINE.

THIRTEEN GERMAN MINERS KILLED.

Berlin, Mar. 1. A terrible disaster occurred in a mine at Recklinghausen to-day, thirteen miners being killed and thirty-five being sent to hospital as the result of the breaking of a shaft cable.

The miners were in two cages when the cable broke and both cages hurtled to the bottom of the shaft, resulting in terrible casualties.—Reuter.

AT OPEN WAR WITH RAILWAYS.

MOTOR COACH STATION IN THE HEART OF LONDON.

GRANDIOSE SCHEME.

London, Mar. 1. An interesting development in the growing rivalry between motor road transport and the railways is contained in a statement that plans have been drawn up for the building of a great motor-coach station in the centre of London.

This station is to have arrival and departure platforms for about eighty coaches, running express services to all parts of the country in competition with the railways.

The financial correspondent of the Evening Standard who makes the announcement says a site has already been purchased near Russell Square.

It is anticipated the station will occupy the same position in the motor transport services as does one of the great termini in the railway services.

It is not stated whether any individual company is responsible for the scheme, but it is intimated that by co-ordination and the building of large central stations, the motor-coach services as a body hope to consolidate their position before the railways receive new powers for road transport from Parliament, and to build up an organisation so complete and efficient that they will be able to take still further traffic from the railway companies.—British Wireless.

NEW PHILIPPINES GOVERNOR.

HUGE CROWD WITNESSES HIS INAUGURATION.

FILIPINOS WARNED.

Manila March 1. Mr. Henry L. Stimson, the new Governor-General, arrived here to-day by the s.s. President McKinley to assume his office.

He was inaugurated in the presence of 20,000 Filipinos on the historic Luneta.

Mr. Stimson is the 100th Governor-General of the Philippines, the first being Senor Legaspi, in 1564.

In his inaugural address, Mr. Stimson confined himself almost entirely with the economic development of the Philippines. He paid a stirring tribute to the late Governor-General Wood, and also cautioned the Filipino leaders to cease their campaign against the military men who have assisted Governors in the past and are doing so at present.

On his arrival in port, Mr. Stimson was escorted into Manila Bay by a destroyer squadron and twenty planes.—Reuter.

MEXICAN REBELS IN BATTLE.

OVER SEVENTY KILLED IN 4-HOUR FIGHT.

RUBBER CONTROL IN BALANCE.

DUTCH & BRITISH MAY CO-OPERATE.

IMPORTANT STATEMENT BY THE HAGUE MEETING.

COMING INTO LINE?

London, Mar. 1. An unexpected suggestion was put forward as a solution to the rubber problem in the House of Commons to-day, when Mr. A. E. Townend (Lab.) asked the Government to invite the Governments of Holland and the United States to co-operate in a scheme for adjusting the production of rubber to the world demand at prices to be agreed upon by the producers and consumers.

Sir Austen Chamberlain replied that, pending the report of the Committee of Civil Research now inquiring into the operation and effect of the Stevenson restriction scheme, the Government did not propose to institute such negotiations.

Dutch Growers Meet.

Amsterdam, Mar. 1. Practically all the producers, including the large companies, were represented at the Dutch Rubber Growers' meeting held at the Hague.

It appears that some of them advocated the formation of a rubber-selling centre, others favoured the introduction of some sort of valuation scheme, while yet another group supported co-operation with the British producers in order to devise some means of effective restriction.

All the proposals were lengthily debated.

Co-Operation Favoured.

The Hague, Mar. 1. A communique has been issued at the conclusion of the meeting of the Dutch rubber growers. It states, inter alia, that the large majority favoured mutual co-operation, but it felt there was no need to appeal to the Governments of Holland or the Dutch East Indies.

The meeting appointed a committee of seven, having the interest of Dutch growers at heart, which in the case of necessity would initiate negotiations with foreign growers and consumers.

Hoor Knappert, of the Hague, was appointed secretary.

Colombo's Desire.

Colombo, Mar. 1. Mr. Obeyesere, a Member of the Legislative Council, has given notice of motion to the Council that he will recommend to the Government the urgent desirability of acceding to the general desire evidenced in the country for the removal of the present restrictions on the exportation of rubber.—Reuter.

SERIOUS CHARGES.

ALLEGED FRAUDS ON DIRECTOR OF EDUCATION.

Pau Tat-shing, alias Pau Ng-ching, a clerk employed at Queen's College, appeared this morning before Major C. Wilson, on six charges of attempting to defraud the Director of Education.

The charges were of a similar nature and referred to different amounts, which it is alleged the defendant obtained by falsely purporting that certain vouchers and bills were true, whereas they were false.

Mr. Leo D'Almada e Castro appeared for the defence and applied for a week's remand, which was granted by his Worship.

WIRELESS TELEPHONE RATES.

FORTY-PER CENT. REDUCTION IN BRITAIN.

London, Mar. 1. The Post Office announces that the minimum charge for a wireless telephone call to the United States or to Canada, is to be reduced from £15 to £8, dating from March 1.—Reuter.

AIR FORCE SWIFT RETRIBUTION.

DAILY ATTACKS ON AKHWAN RAIDERS IN IRAK.

ENDING ATROCITIES.

A vigorous effort is being made by the British authorities in Irak to put an end to the depredations of the Akhwan raiders under the outlaw Sheikh, Faisal-ed-Dowish, whose terrible atrocities culminated a fortnight ago in an attack on the encampment at Jowaret, when terrible butchery was carried out.

Retribution came swiftly in the form of an Air Force flight when caught up with the raiders and swooping down inflicted severe casualties. The Air Force has continued operations against the raiders ever since, as the following cable shows:

Basra, Mar. 1.

It is estimated that at least 800 Akhwan raiders have been killed by the Royal Air Force during the past fortnight. When the raiders are sighted, the machines fly overhead dropping bombs and swooping down issuing deadly machine-gun fire.

The campaign has been conducted daily, but the difficulties of detecting the raiders are enormous owing to the mirages and sandstorms.—Reuter.

AIR FORCE MACHINES AT SINGAPORE.

SIR SAMUEL HOARE SENDS CONGRATULATIONS.

London, Mar. 1. Sir Samuel Hoare, the Secretary for the Air, has sent the following telegram to Group Captain Cave-Brown-Cave, the officer commanding the four Super-Marine Southampton flying boats which have just reached Singapore on their cruise to the Far East:

"I warmly congratulate you and all under your command on the highly successful completion of the first 11,000 mile stage of your flight. The punctuality with which you have adhered to your time-table reflects the greatest credit on all concerned, and demonstrates convincingly the important role which the flying-boat can fulfil in the Empire both for defence purposes in time of war, and in developing air communications in time of peace."—British Wireless.

THE WAR IN THE NORTH.

NATIONALISTS GETTING READY.

Shanghai, Mar. 2. Marshal Chiang Kai-shek has been very busy inspecting military forces in Nanking before they are despatched to the Northern front. The Nationalist Air Force was inspected by the Marshal on Wednesday. General Chang Ching-yu, the commander of the Air Force, is to leave Nanking to-day for the North, with five fighting planes and officers. Headquarters for General Chang has been established at Hsuehchow and a landing station will be established at Pengpu.

A message from Chengchow states that the Headquarters of the Kuomintang forces was moved to Kaifeng on Wednesday. It is reported that Marshal Feng Yuxiang is expected to leave for the Hainan front in Northern Hunan shortly.—Nam Chung Pao.

PECULIAR PEKING PARADOX.

HONEST MOVE TO PAY FOREIGN LOANS.

AND IMPOSITION OF TAX IN SPITE OF PROTESTS.

CHINESE GOODWILL.

Peking, March 1. In spite of protests by the Legations, the Chinese Chamber of Commerce and leading business men, the Government has imposed a five per cent. Luxury Tax which it proposes to collect as from to-day.

It will be collected by means of stamps on sales.

The Chinese business men are still protesting most vigorously in their attempts to secure a withdrawal of the tax, which is most unpopular, though the rate is much lower and the number of articles taxed is much less than were originally proposed.

Pleading to Bondholders.

News of considerable interest to foreign bondholders has been officially announced. As regards the default on the Anglo-French Loan of 1908, for which insufficient funds were provided for the amortisation due last September, the Chinese Government has now paid the balance thereof into the Bank.

It is further announced that 220,000, has already been paid towards the interest on the Shanghai-Nanking Railway Loan which was due December 1st. A further 220,000 is expected to be paid this month, and therefore it is probable that shareholders will receive their half-yearly interest less than three months in arrears.—Reuter.

Sino-Foreign Friendliness.

(Our Own Correspondent.)

Shanghai, March 1. The great improvement in Sino-foreign relations was manifested to-day when General Wardrop, the new Commander-in-Chief of the British Shanghai Defence Force, paid a visit to the Chinese Garrison Commander at Lung Hua, accompanied by Sir Sidney Barton, the Consul-General.

They were warmly received by General H. Iung, who evinced considerable interest when he was informed that General Wardrop fought from the first to the very last day of the Great War.

General Wardrop was invited to a Chinese feast, and accepted with alacrity.

The utmost cordiality is now prevailing.

The Finance Minister asked for an adjournment of the debate.—Reuter.

"CHINA" EXHIBITION.

ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH ENTERPRISE.

Arising out of a suggestion on the part of one or two people, the idea of a Chinese exposition of life and customs and manufactures has grown into something bigger and fuller, an exhibition of "Things Chinese" that will tend to give residents in the Colony a better appreciation, and a wider knowledge of those among whom they live.

Preliminary meetings formulated the scope of the exhibition, but it was left to a general committee meeting, held in St. Andrew's Church Hall, to appoint sub-committees, and to set in motion the machinery of this undertaking.

The three days of the exhibition are March 28th, 29th, and 30th and the Church Hall and the grounds will be utilised in their entirety for the display of the various aspects of Chinese life.

At the meeting a brief report was read by Mr. F. Mow Fung, who outlined all that had been done to date.

A provisional committee had been appointed by the Vicar, Rev. W. Walton Rogers, and this met for the first time on Feb. 3, and as a result of their deliberations a definite scheme was drawn up, and the approval of St. Andrew's vestry obtained; this was followed by a circular letter, outlining the plans.

An idea of preliminary arrangements made, and work accomplished was then given.

The Exhibits.

It was decided to try and secure on loan specimens of Chinese Art and Antiquities, old porcelain, pictures, carvings, Chinese inventions, and typical Chinese curios. Several had already been promised, among which were a peculiar ink slab, in a carved blackwood case, used by the Emperor Kien Lung, over 2,000 years old, a grain of rice carved with 28 Chinese characters, two tiny pieces of ivory, with minute writing upon them, an old Chinese Compass and Sundial.

These, and others that are to be loaned, will be displayed in the Church Hall.

In addition, various demonstrations are to be arranged, showing methods of manufacture of wood carving, ivory work, Chinese writing on scrolls, wax figures and other items of peculiar interest to people living in China. Chinese firms are to be allowed to carry on their trades within the grounds, in order that one may see "how it is made" or "how it works" and samples of the work done will be on sale. It is interesting to note that several exhibitors at Wembley Exhibition have promised to demonstrate.

The St. Andrew's Church have decided to run a stall stocked with goods obtained from Canton, which will be sold at reasonable prices.

Entertainments.

It is proposed to utilise the Church Hall for the purpose of staging tableaux of Chinese customs, such as weddings, funerals, Ching Ming, and others, each preceded by a short explanatory lecture in English. Lectures on the Chinese art and music, and the peculiarities of the language are also to be given. The Hongkong University students will present a Chinese concert, and the Rev. G.H. McNeur is lecturing on "The Chinese Mind."

For the provision of refreshments, two restaurants are to be run, one giving Chinese food and teas, and the other supplying teas in English style. The former will be obtained in the upper rooms of the Church Hall and the English teas on the lawn.

Messrs. Wo Hop, the firm who demonstrated at Wembley, have

CANTON SCHOOL.

A CAMPAIGN TO RAISE $10,000.

The students of Pui Ching Baptist Academy in Tungshan, Canton, are conducting a vigorous campaign to raise $10,000 for the construction of a reception building as part of the scheme in re-modelling that institution. Although the movement was started spontaneously by the students themselves, they have received much inspiration and encouragement from their principal, Mr. I. P. Wan, who has been in charge of the school since September last. Under his able administration, many needed reforms have been introduced, including a new system of organization based on the latest approved methods.

Already the students have received donations up to about $2,000. Before they close their campaign, they will visit Hongkong and Macao with a view to securing further contributions from those who are interested in the educational progress in South China.

ARMY ESTIMATES.

OVER HALF MILLION LESS THAN 1922.

London, Mar. 1. The army estimates for 1923 amount to £41,050,000 or £515,000 less than those of 1922. No provision is made for extra troops in China, for which a supplementary estimate is being presented.

The strength of the British army, inclusive of British troops in India is 153,500, a decrease of 13,000 and approximately 2,500 below the establishment as a result of the falling off of recruiting in 1922.—Reuter.

Changes in Organisation.

The Rt. Hon. Sir L. Worthington-Evans, in a memorandum on the army estimates, says that the principal changes in organisation proposed in 1923 include the extension of the modernisation of the cavalry begun in 1922 to regiments in Egypt and India, and the reorganisation of foot guards and infantry battalions to comprise three instead of four rifle companies, with an addition of a machine gun company, instead of a machine gun platoon; also an anti-tank section to be included in the headquarters wing.

Each battalion on the reorganisation of the tank corps battalions will comprise three companies, each consisting of three sections of five tanks instead of four sections of four tanks. Nevertheless the number of tanks in a battalion will remain fifty-two.

The Reserve.

The Army reserve is 95,000, an increase of about 3,000 which is anticipated to increase to 13,000 in the coming year. The supplementary reserve is approximately 15,800 Territorials, 6,824 officers and 132,323 other ranks, an increase of 64 officers and a decrease of 7,439 other ranks, concerning which Sir L. Worthington-Evans points out that the substitution of the proficiency grant for the training bounty led to a falling off of recruiting in the spring, "but later figures show an improvement."

There will be no army manoeuvres in 1923 but the regulars will carry out their divisional training. He announces the continuance of the programme for the accommodation of troops in Egypt and progress will be made in military defence works required in connexion with the Singapore Base.

A New Gun.

As regards research he says that there has been considerable advance in the provision of armoured fighting vehicles and increasing numbers of six wheeled lorries have been introduced, and the number of medium and light tanks will be increased. Certain cavalry units will be supplied with armoured cars. All medium artillery will be mechanised.

Experiments are progressing with a new gun for horse artillery, also a new field howitzer. "Important modifications in the design of shell have been achieved."

Dealing with the health of the troops, Sir L. Worthington-Evans believes that the absence of sickness among the troops despatched to China is remarkable in "view of the climatic and other conditions of their service."—Reuter.

EDITH CAVELL.

THE FILM IN PARIS.

Paris, March 1. The producer of the Cavell film has arranged to show it at the Champs Elysees Theatre to foreign pressmen, including British. Special trains and boats will be run for British pressmen. All will be asked to vote on the desirability of its public presentation.—Reuter.

RELIEF MEASURES.

ASSISTANCE FOR REFUGEES FROM HOIFUNG.

Hoifung and Lukfung Chinese merchants in the Colony are busy seeking assistance for the refugees who recently arrived in Hongkong from the two "Red" devastated districts on the East River.

A proposal has been made at the Ho-Luk-Fung Merchants' Association in Hongkong to erect a large ranch to lodge the hundreds of refugees now here, not a few of whom are said to be on the verge of starvation. It is believed by a section of the members of this association that this scheme will relieve the refugees only and that some permanent and more lasting means to help these unfortunate people will have to be drawn up.

A few days ago, a certain Mr. Lam, a prominent member of the Ho-Luk-Fung Association, provided free passages to about fifty refugees for the latter to go to Singapore, where it is thought they will be able to find employment as sugar and rubber labourers. Other members of the same association will collect funds to send more of the refugees to the Straits Settlements and other out ports, where it is believed that they may find work.

LANCASHIRE MILLS.

REPORT DENIED.

London, Mar. 1. "Ridiculous exaggeration" says the Manchester Guardian, commenting on the report that a scheme is afoot for the amalgamation of a hundred spinning mills in the American section of the cotton trade.

The Manchester Guardian declares that there is no evidence to suggest that any large combination of mills is about to be completed. "It can, however, be said without disclosure of the discussions which are naturally tentative and exploratory, that practical attention is being given to a method whereby amalgamation will be achievable. The success of any such movement must obviously depend on how far the mills themselves prove responsive."—Reuter.

LONDON FLOODS.

SCHEME TO PREVENT A REPETITION.

London, March 1. A comprehensive scheme to guard against the possibility of the repetition of the January flood disaster in the riverside districts of London has been approved by a conference of the public authorities interested. The scheme imposes upon the London County Council the duty of supervising the flood defence works within the County of London, and institutes an effective system of warnings and keeping watch when high tides are imminent.—British Wireless.

LETTER GOLF.

From BOOK to MARK is five strokes according to Letter Golf, but a boy with a jam pot can do it in nothing flat.

1—The idea of letter golf is to change one word to another and to it in pair, a given number of strokes. Thus to change COW to HEN, in three strokes, COW, HOW, HEN, HEN.

2—You can change only one letter at a time.
3—You must have a complete word, of common usage, for each jump. Slang words and abbreviations don't count.
4—The order of letters cannot be changed.
One solution is printed on another page of this issue.

A decision at Aberlilly recently may involve school teachers in a national strike. "The Big Three," the Labour Councilors who are acting on behalf of the Ministry of Health, have taken over the administration of public finance owing to the extravagance of previous local authorities. "The Big Three" have decided to give notice to all teachers in the area asking them to accept lower salaries. The representatives of the Ministry met the Executive of the National Union of Teachers, and the local teachers decided to place their case in the hands of their Union.

A new picture by the famous comedian, Charlie Chaplin, is a screen event of the first importance, hence the exceptional interest that is being shown in "The Circus" which is to be presented at the Queen's Theatre on Sunday next. Coupled with the fact that "The Circus" is Charlie's first picture since the "Gold Rush," is the further fact that his latest film excels any of his previous productions. Chaplin in this picture is a clown and out tramp who finds himself in the vicinity of a circus. Here, he unwittingly becomes the accomplice of a pickpocket, and as a result is chased by the police. His ingenuity, however, enables him to elude capture, and when the Circus proprietor finds himself deserted by his staff, Charlie is engaged as a handy man. In a very short time Charlie falls in love with the proprietor's daughter. Unfortunately for Charlie the girl falls in love with the new "star" of the show—a tight rope walker. The circus owner soon finds that in Charlie the property man he has found a first-class comedian, whose antics are the delight of the crowds. The climax, however, is not reached until Charlie has to substitute for the tight-rope walker, and it is in this scene that his acting together with the ludicrous situations his brain has created make the most laughable and exciting scene of the whole picture.

Charlie is still the same Charlie of old, with trick cane, rakish bowler and baggy trousers, all complete. His quaint mannerisms are there, too. Moreover every "stunt" he has put into the picture is new, and, altogether, "The Circus" is a supremely funny production.

Mr. Neville Chamberlain, Minister for Health, laid the foundation stone of the London County Council's Ossulston-street dwellings, St. Pancras. The dwellings, which are to house over 3,000 people, will have several novel features.

WOMAN'S WORLD

FOR OUR LADY READERS.

Pocket Money.

HOW MUCH TO ALLOW, A PROBLEM.

There is a tale told of a rich man who has allowed his son at school a cheque-book with the power to draw practically as he wishes, and though the majority of schoolmasters will hold up their hands in horror at the idea, it does not seem necessarily to follow that it is a bad plan altogether.

How much pocket-money to give is always a problem, for even when the rules of the school fix a limit, parents have their own ideas and can circumvent those rules if they wish. It is the desire of every parent who is not hopelessly spoiling their children to see them wise in money matters, but it is not often realised how easy it is to cause them to be unwise, either through too great strictness or too great latitude.

A boy who has never been allowed to spend more than sixpence "off his own bat," as it were, is just as likely to become violently extravagant when he does get his hands on more as is the boy who has always had plenty at his disposal. In both cases the boys have not learnt the value of money.

The way for a youth to learn the value of money is by handling it. One cannot learn to swim without entering the water. But a natural hesitation is bound to keep back a parent who has plenty to allow his son, but is not fondly indulgent, to the point of abject weakness.

It is a bold experiment to allow a boy of 15 to possess his own cheque-book, and a large balance upon which to draw; it might easily lead to disaster. But who would say that the wiser course would be to keep all money from the boy's hands until he went out into life?

The true test seems to an average parent—to lie not in the amount of money, but in the way in which it is spent. It is possible to be just as foolish with a pound note as with a bank balance of $500. Wise parents will allow their sons at school a decent "working" sum, and then ask them at the end of the term for a rough outline of how they spent it.

The answers will prove how much the boy has already learnt of the value of money, and provide a sure guide for the future. "Oh, it simply melted away. I don't know what I did with it," tells his own tale. Better by far is the answer, "I spent it all on grub." The latter may not prove great wisdom, but, at all events, it proves that a certain value has been obtained in return for cash expended.

Answers to the question as to how pocket-money has been spent are extremely valuable, for, in addition to showing what a boy thinks of the use of money, they can also give a remarkable insight into the boy's future career. His likes and dislikes are clearly shown by the way he spends his own cash.

Have You Heard---

That lacquered brass should never be cleaned with metal polish of any description, or its lustre will be lost? A mixture can be made by dissolving a tablespoonful of soft soap in a pint of boiling water, allowing it to cool, then mixing in half a pint of paraffin. This should be rubbed well into the brass and polished off with a soft leather.

Book Jackets.

TO SUIT INDIVIDUAL TASTES.

The paper jackets of novels are a nuisance; they repeatedly slip away from the backs while the book is being read. Yet every book lover wishes to keep her copies virgin.

A good method is to make a permanent book jacket for use on every book as we read them. Ideal materials for making these covers are raffia, silk, plaited straw, thin leather, &c., and the cover is made in a similar design to the paper one, except that it is rather larger than the size of a novel—this to allow of the book being slipped into its cover. The two flaps which fold over inside the book covers are sewn or fastened.

Whiskered Shoes.

CHARMING MODE FOR COLOURED HOSE.

A new way of trimming evening shoes has appeared on the fashionable horizon.

A square or triangle of some smooth fur, such as gazelle or close-cropped beaver, is inserted into the front or side of the shoe, and edged with a narrow strapping of contrasting leather and with sticking out "hairs" at the sides.

Two small triangles inserted at the sides rather give the shoe the appearance of wearing elegant whiskers.

Flat bags to match the shoes are trimmed and "whiskered" in the same way.

Soft leather of a russet shade is

Gives the Right Dainty Slim Effect.

The vogue for black is charmingly expressed in this 'ten-time frock,' carried out in black georgette and fine black lace. It is a simple, dainty model, with fine tucking over the hips to secure the essential slim effect.

at the top and bottom, so that the book is quite secure within its jacket.

A great advantage of the permanent book jacket is that one can distinguish one's own novel immediately should it happen to be laid with others—paper jackets are so similar that it is often difficult to recognise one particular book from its companions on the shelf or in the case. Moreover, the initials of the owner can be worked on, and the cover otherwise decorated to suit individual tastes.

The making of a permanent book jacket is but the work of an hour or so, but it is well worth decorated with very narrow straps of russet patent leather.

The bag that should accompany these shoes is trimmed with a slightly larger piece of fur, but the colouring and design remain the same.

Snake-skin shoes for daytime wear, trimmed with beaver and strapped with brown, are startling but become quite charming when worn with beaver-coloured silk stockings.

the time spent, for most pleasing results can be obtained, apart from the useful purpose the cover is to serve.

The Hongkong Telegraph.

FRIDAY, MARCH 2, 1928.

A HISTORIC VISIT.

After a prolonged period of misunderstanding between the two centres, Hongkong and Canton are being brought closer together in the bonds of amity. That is the real significance of to-day's official visit by Marshal Li Chai-sum and party. Hongkong welcomes the Chairman of the Southern Government and his colleagues not only because of the high and responsible positions which they occupy, but because they come to our shores as the apostles of friendship. It is, as we remarked a few days ago, very many years since an event comparable to this visit occurred. We can therefore regard the renewal of this happy custom as a historic occasion, truly indicative of the improved relations between the Governments and the people of this Colony and of Canton. The warmth of the welcome which Hongkong is extending to the distinguished party may be taken as an outward sign of the feelings which animate the whole community.

Marshal Li Chai-sum, during the period of his rule in Canton—both before and since the recent interregnum—has shown himself to be an administrator of no mean ability. He has the right conceptions of his office, which are to endeavour to make Kwangtung a model province and also to encourage the spirit of co-operation between Chinese and foreigners. In one of his recent speeches, he struck a happy note when he declared that "to cultivate private friendship is a proper step towards public friendship for the nations concerned." He and his colleagues are acting in accord with that thought. Viewed in that light, his visit can be of the utmost value in re-establishing the traditional relations between Britain and South China. It is extremely satisfactory, in this connexion, to know that Marshal Li will, during his brief stay here, have an opportunity of discussing with His Excellency the Governor matters in which this Colony and Canton have a joint interest. There are reports current that Marshal Li is particularly anxious to improve railway communication with Hongkong and that he favours the construction of a loop line between the terminus of the Canton-Kowloon and Canton-Hankow lines. That is a project which Hongkong has long desired to see undertaken, and it is one which would be of much mutual benefit to Canton and ourselves. Doubtless this will be one of the matters touched upon in the conversations between Marshal Li and H. E. the Governor.

Not only is this Colony pleased to see Marshal Li here, but the presence of Madame Li, as well as the wife of another official, is also looked upon as a particularly happy circumstance, marking, as it does, an entirely new and welcome feature in visits of this character. Of the remaining members of the party, the foreign community in particular feels gratified that they include Mr. Chu Chao-hsin, the Minister for Foreign Affairs, who has had such a distinguished diplomatic career and who is working so amicably with the Consular Body in Canton. To Marshal Li Chai-sum and all the members of his Mission we extend the heartiest of welcomes, and in doing so we know that we are echoing the sentiments of the whole Colony.

Russia's Recognition.

Eventually the time must come when Soviet Russia will be accepted as a normal member of international society, but even as we are convinced of this, we feel that some more definite assurance of her reformation than the banishment of a few hot-heads is necessary before a welcome can be extended. Russia's destiny lies entirely in the hands of her political leaders, and as soon as they realise that there is no half-way house, that insane interference in the affairs of other countries must be totally abandoned, then no further reason will exist for a maintenance of the present anomalous position, a nation occupying a huge proportion of the earth's land surface, unrecognised in respectable circles. We cannot, however, ally ourselves with the Parliamentarians who suggest the resumption of diplomatic relations between Britain and Russia merely because a domestic dispute has ended in the dismissal of M. Trotsky and his adherents. Sir Austen Chamberlain made the only reply possible. Nothing has happened to justify particular British interest, and, further, if Russia feels a desire for recognition, and is prepared to give the assurances Britain must require, the usual diplomatic channels are free. If the point is argued to the full, it is our opinion that nothing could happen to justify British initiative in the matter. We have suffered sufficiently at the Soviet hands to require that any approaches toward a more friendly spirit should come from the other side. Stalin has ejected his opposers, but we should like to know a little more concerning the international aspects of this development before judgment is passed in his favour.

We should like to know exactly how far he is prepared to go in the National Socialist movement he has been talking about, and to what extent he is prepared to ignore the Soviet doctrine. Only by watching developments in Russia itself can the sincerity of the new movement be tested, and Stalin's triumph is of so short duration that one cannot, in the first place, guarantee its stability. Russians capable of exercising their intelligence economically must have realised, by now, that foreign co-operation is essential if Russia's latent resources are to be developed, and to secure that co-operation an earnest effort must be made to satisfy other Powers that fanatical Communism is no longer the dominant factor in the politics of the country. When this is accomplished, and not before, we may begin to consider a rapprochement. If foreign approaches, when encouraged, appear to be carried out very gingerly, the Soviet has only herself to blame. A man is a fool who allows a serpent to sting him twice.

DAY BY DAY.

NOTHING BETRAYS A MAN'S CHARACTER SO MUCH AS HIS MANNER OF LAUGHING.—Ernest E. Ashford.

Yesterday's health return shows one Chinese fever of puerperal fever.

It is advertised that Mr. William Adamson has retired from partnership in the firm of Messrs. Shewan Tomes & Co., as from February 29, 1928.

Much sympathy will be felt with Dr. Balaan in the death of his brother, Mr. Oswald Balaan, which occurred at Nawalapitiya, Ceylon, at the age of 48 years, after an operation.

The current issue of The Rock is a most interesting number, containing articles on a variety of subjects. The street-sleeping problem is dealt with at length, it being described as the problem of poverty and wealth.

The marriage took place recently before the Registrar of Marriage, of Ada Mary Pepperell, and Ralph Fairbairn Oliver. The religious ceremony was performed by his Lordship Bishop A. Fourquet, at the Roman Catholic Cathedral, Canton, in 1926.

The Yellow Dragon, Queen's College magazine, has again made its appearance, the January and February number being just issued. School matters are dealt with, whilst a further instalment of Mr. Crook's article on the flowering plants of Hongkong is given.

A large consignment of arms and ammunition, captured by troops of Marshal Li Chai-sum during recent operations on the East River against the "Ironside" troops, arrived in Canton on Wednesday morning by the Canton-Kowloon Railway from Shek-lung.

A number of Hongkong residents returned to the Colony on the P. and O. s.s. Mongolia which arrived yesterday. The passengers included Mr. and Mrs. Hickling, Mr. H. Owen, Miss H. R. Gubbins, Mr. F. M. Spence, Mr. H. S. Miles, Mr. W. Smith, Eng. Lt. Perrow, Surg. Lt. Comdr. Hunt, Mr. C. Middleton Smith, Pay-Lt. P. J. Moore, Lt. Col. C. C. Larking, Mr. and Mrs. Fry, Mr. and Mrs. Stuart and Mr. D. B. Stevenson.

LOCAL WEDDING.

MR. W. H. OWEN AND MISS E. M. SCORE.

An interesting wedding took place at the Union Church yesterday afternoon, the contracting parties being Mr. W. H. Owen, of the Public Works Department, and Miss E. M. Score. The Rev. J. Kirk Macdonald officiated.

The bride was given away by Mr. J. H. Bottomley, and Mr. A. W. Hodges was "best man" whilst Mrs. A. Costello was Matron of Honour. Mr. J. E. Longyear was at the organ.

After the ceremony, a reception was held at the "Blaney Stone," Pokfulam, when congratulations were extended to Mr. and Mrs. Owen. The honeymoon is being spent at Repulse Bay.

WEEK'S PICTURES.

APPEARING IN TO-MORROW'S "TELEGRAPH."

There will once again be an interesting selection of pictures of topical interest in to-morrow's Telegraph.

One picture of special interest will be a large group of Chinese and British officials, taken during Sir Miles Lampson's visit to Canton, in which all the high officers of the Southern Government appear.

There will also be groups taken at the weddings of Mr. D. H. Perry and Miss Gladys Robinson, and of Mr. Richard Charles Lee and Miss Esther Wong, as well as pictures of a further batch of greyhounds being shipped from London to Shanghai for racing purposes. A portrait of Mr. K. S. Chowdhury, the first Indian barrister to practise in Hongkong, will also appear.

THE WEATHER OUTLOOK.

To-day's Observatory report states:—Gradients are slight throughout the area. A shallow depression appears to be central to the South of Korea. The forecast up to noon to-morrow 1st—South-west or variable winds, light; fair, cloudy, with fog or mist.

INVALIDED HOME WITH PARALYSIS.

SUB-INSP. HOPE OF THE WATER POLICE.

After ten years service with the Hongkong Police Force, Sub-Inspector M. Hope, of the Water Police, is being invalided home and will leave by the s.s. Macedonia to-morrow.

Mr. Hope, who has made a wide circle of friends by his genial disposition, first joined the local police as a constable on December 21, 1917, being promoted to Sergeant in July 1924, and Sub-Inspector in April last year. He has spent most of his service abroad.

He was commended by the Captain Superintendent of Police for alertness and real display on the occasion of the seizure of a counterfeit-coin plant at Tung Lung Island, off Lymun, on August 14, 1922, when his action resulted in the arrest of two prisoners who were sentenced to terms of imprisonment at a sitting of the Criminal Sessions.

Sub-Inspector Hope had received information with regard to the plant and when well out to sea he noticed a small matchbox high up on the side of a hill on Tung Lung Island, and the absence of paddy fields or other signs of life aroused his suspicions.

This suspicion was communicated to headquarters as a result of which assistance was sent. The building was surrounded and seized, two men being arrested. This plant was of an unusually large character, quantities of metal and dies, already set for the purpose of making 20 cent pieces, being taken possession of.

Sub-Inspector Hope has been in hospital for some time and is suffering from an aneurism, a form of paralysis.

Another officer being invalided home is Sergt. F. Wakelan, who has served with the Hongkong Police for two years.

Police officers departing from the Colony on leave on board the s.s. Macedonia include Acting Chief Detective Inspector A. N. Reynolds, Inspector W. R. McWalter, Sub-Inspector C. L. Goble, and Sergt. J. Kennedy.

The following returned from leave yesterday by the s.s. Mongolia, Chief Detective Inspector T. Murphy, Sub-Inspector Brennan, Sub-Inspector A. Nicoll, Sergt. E. J. Field, and Sergt. T. Daly.

CHISEL AND FILE.

MEN CAUGHT WITH OFFENSIVE WEAPONS.

Two of three Chinese, who were arrested in Prince Edward Road shortly after nine o'clock last night, were charged before Mr. W. Schofield at the Kowloon Magistracy this morning with being in possession of offensive weapons. The first defendant was alleged to have had a three-cornered file in his possession.

The facts of the case, as stated by Sergeant Macdonald, were that three men were seen loitering in Prince Edward Road. They were ordered to stop and submit to a search. The first defendant was seen to throw a chisel away, while the second defendant discarded a file which was wrapped up in a piece of paper.

It was pointed out to his Worship that the file was sharpened and resembled a three-cornered dagger.

When asked why he had thrown the chisel away, the first defendant said he had never had the experience of having been searched by a policeman before and he thought it might be illegal to carry a chisel.

Remarking that his reply did not sound very convincing, the first defendant was sentenced to six weeks' hard labour.

To the second defendant his Worship said:—This is an offensive weapon. It is not a file, but a dagger.

Sentence of three months' hard labour was imposed.

So many right hand gloves are lost in the London underground regularly that a business has grown up where odd gloves may be purchased to match the remaining ones. Forty thousand gloves were lost in the underground and tube trains during the last twelve months. The Umbrellas figured by the "palace of figures" announced by the "palace of carelessness" as the house where lost articles are assembled is called. There were 12,000 umbrellas and 600 canes. The lost articles are kept six months, and, if not claimed, are sold.

"You get used to it, sir," he returned. "When I want to write a letter at home I have to get the wife to shake the table for me."

Another British woman has adopted the ministry as a career, following in the footsteps of Miss Maude Royden, who is visiting in America. Miss Dorothy Wilson has received a unanimous invitation to become assistant minister of Carr Lane Church, one of the most famous Congregational churches in England. Dr. J. H. Jowett was minister there before he became pastor of a New York church.

Miss Wilson took the Oxford University degree in theology with distinction, and is also a bachelor of literature.

The elderly woman entered the theatrical manager's office rather timidly.

"Well," barked the great man, "what's your line? Let's hear you sing."

The woman hesitated, then quaveringly struggled through the first verse of "Annie Larrick."

"That's rotten," was the verdict.

"You can't sing."

"I never said I could," she replied. "And now if you're through I'll clean the office. That's what I came for."

Many pounds were given away in London just before the dawn of the New Year by an elderly man in evening dress, who went along the Embankment looking for "down-and-outs." He went along in a dark blue Rolls-Royce car, halted at intervals, got out and unobtrusively went up to the wretched men and women sheltering in corners. Shaking hands, he wished them "A Happier New Year," leaving ten-shilling notes or half-crowns in their hands. He refused to give his name.

A debate will be held at the Cathedral Hall on Tuesday evening, on the subject "That in making the world Christian, emphasis should be laid on winning individuals, rather than on changing wrong conditions." Rev. J. Kirk Macdonald, M.A., and Mr. A. E. Lee will speak in favour of the motion, and the opposition will be led by the Rev. H. V. Keop, M.A., and Mr. G. S. Zimmermann.

SOUTH AFRICAN EL DORADO.

AMAZINGLY RICH FIND OF DIAMONDS.

WHOLE AREA TO BE DECLARED STATE DIGGINGS.

PROTECTING MARKET.

Cape Town, Mar. 1. An apparently unimportant item of "£2,500 for district development" caused a first class debate in the Assembly, in the course of which interesting details were given of a romantic discovery of a fabulously rich alluvial deposit of diamonds in Alexander Bay, at the mouth of the Orange River, which was first disclosed last December.

Sir David Harris described the new El Dorado as the richest diamond field ever discovered anywhere.

Questions elicited the information that diamonds are lying on the surface and only need picking up. The Government owns a hundred claims from which experts have extracted £160,000 worth of diamonds in a few weeks by hand-picking.

The Government propose that sixty Namaqualand diggers shall work the fields on behalf of the State. The Minister, Mr. Beyers, emphasised that the government would control the output. The opposition led by General Smuts, deprecated the principle of State digging as involved. The debate is proceeding.—Reuter.

Whole Area Exceedingly Rich.

Cape Town, March 1. On the resumption of the debate, Mr. Beyers stated that in addition to the hundred claims registered by the Government at Alexander Bay, the whole adjoining area, containing approximately thirty thousand claims was exceedingly rich in diamonds.

He had personally picked up diamonds worth £600 in the course of an hour.

The Government intended to declare the whole area to be "State diggings." If they acted otherwise, it would mean forcing large quantities of diamonds on the market which was most undesirable.

"Paved With Diamonds."

Replying to the fears expressed by the Opposition that the overseas Press would be filled with blaring headlines conveying the impression that South Africa was paved with diamonds, Mr. Beyers said he did not mean that one could find £1,000 worth simply by picking them up.

If any such idea had arisen in the course of debate, he asked to correct it.—Reuter.

GRAVE DANGER TO CANADA.

NEED TO RESTRICT JAPANESE IMMIGRATION.

Victoria (B.C.), Mar. 1. A debate took place in the Legislative Assembly on a resolution urging the abrogation of the Anglo-Japanese Treaty so far as it related to the Provincial Government's right to enact anti-Oriental legislation, and requesting the Federal Government not to grant any further naturalisations of Orientals.

Mr. Manson, the Provincial Attorney General, suggested that members of the Assembly should unite in preparing a resolution pointing out to the Federal Government the seriousness of the Oriental immigration question. In the course of his speech, Mr. Manson said the greatest danger threatening was a disastrous intermixture of races through intermarriage. He added that the situation must be met promptly.—Reuter's American Service.

NUMEROUS LARCENY CASES.

LONG LIST AT KOWLOON.

An unusually long list of larceny cases was heard by Mr. Schofield at the Kowloon Magistracy this morning.

A ten-year-old Chinese was charged with stealing eight tent pieces and eight five-cent pieces from the stall of a woman cigarette hawker in Shanghai Street yesterday afternoon.

The defendant denied the actual theft, but stated that another boy stole the money and gave it to him, instructing him to run away. His Worship said that the defendant's plea amounted to one of guilty of receiving.

Inspector Fallon, who prosecuted, accepted the plea, although the defendant was actually seen to snatch the money from the complainant's stall.

His Worship remanded the defendant until to-morrow morning for enquiries concerning the defendant's relatives or someone willing to take charge of him.

Stolen Planks.

Sentence of three weeks' hard labour, with the option of a fine of $15, was imposed on a Chinese who was charged with larceny of three planks from No. 120, Kowloon Tong early yesterday morning.

The defendant was arrested by a Chinese detective carrying the boards. On being questioned, he took the officer to No. 120, Kowloon Tong from which place he had taken the planks.

Dock Theft.

A brass cock and a brass wheel, valued at $10, formed the subject of a larceny charge brought against a carpenter employed at the Kowloon Docks.

The defendant pleaded guilty. According to Inspector Fallon, the defendant was arrested in Shanghai Street with the two brass articles in his possession.

His Worship imposed a fine of $50, with the alternative of one month's hard labour.

Pawnbroker Prosecutes.

A pawnbroker, residing on the first floor of No. 34, Temple Street, prosecuted a Chinese on a charge of larceny of a woollen blanket.

Inspector Fallon informed his Worship that the defendant was seen carrying the blanket, and, when questioned, he stated that it belonged to him. The detective was taking the defendant to his residence, when the latter threw the blanket away and attempted to escape.

The defendant was chased and caught by a pedestrian. On enquiries being made, it was found that the blanket was stolen from the first floor of No. 34, Temple Street. To have gained admittance to the premises, the defendant would have had to climb the drain pipe, added Inspector Fallon.

Defendant was sentenced to one month's hard labour.

Fire Brigade Loss.

Mr. E. F. Brown, mechanic of the Hongkong Fire Brigade, appeared as a witness in a case in which a Chinese was charged with larceny of a metal bush, belonging to the Hongkong Government, it being alleged that the defendant stole the article from an engineering shop at No. 10, Tung Street, where it had been left for remounting.

The defendant pleaded that a friend had stolen the article. It was gathered from the evidence that during the overhauling of the No. 6 fire engine in the brigade workshop, twelve metal bushes were sent to Yumati for remounting. On February 28th, the defendant visited a friend at the engineering shop and after he had left it was discovered that one of the bushes was missing.

The defendant was later located and he at once volunteered to show the police where the article was sold. Evidence was given that the defendant had taken the bush to a marine hawker.

The defendant was convicted and fined $50 with the alternative of six weeks' hard labour, it being stated that there was nothing known against him.

Four other larceny cases were mentioned but these were put off until afternoon. Among these were two cases of snatching, one larceny of a chicken and the fourth larceny from the person.

BRITISH ARMY CHANGES.

HOW DECREASED PERSONNEL HAS BEEN EFFECTED.

MORE MECHANISATION.

London, March 1. Important changes in the Army are announced by the Secretary for War in the memorandum accompanying the Army Estimates.

The decrease of 12,500 in the size of the Army is accounted for by the smaller number of troops employed in China, the withdrawal of coast defence troops from Bermuda and Sierra Leone, reductions in the British Army on the Rhine, reorganisation of the troops in Egypt, and economies resulting from the continued revision of the establishments at Home and abroad.

During 1927, one medium brigade of Royal Artillery has been withdrawn from the Mediterranean to Great Britain, and one infantry battalion has been brought home from the Rhine.

The remaining decrease of 500 is due to the reduction in Indian troops employed in the Middle East from 2,000 to 1,500.

In view of the lessons learnt during the last year, it has been decided to increase the number of medium and light tanks as funds permit, to supply armoured cars for certain cavalry units, and gradually to provide the fighting and other mechanised vehicles required by all units. Re-design of equipment is keeping pace with the progress in mechanisation. Experiments are also proceeding with artillery of lesser calibres, both for close support and for anti-tank work.—British Wireless.

FOOTBALL FORECAST COMPETITION.

ONE COMPETITOR WINS $25.

Last week's football competition again proved rather difficult by reason of the fact that no fewer than five out of the 12 matches given on the coupon ended in a draw.

In consequence, there have been relatively few claims for the prize. There were two claims in respect of nine correct forecasts, but on examination we find that one of the claimants has made an error, eight being the most he has right on any one coupon.

The competitor who was successful in correctly forecasting nine matches correct was:

Mr. V. Allenza,
Orient Buildings,
Nathan Road, Kowloon.

If he will call at this office we shall be glad to hand him the prize money.

This week's coupon will be found on another page of this issue.

We wish to impress on competitors the fact that if they will send in all their coupons in one envelope it will greatly facilitate the work of checking up claims.

Manchester is to have its £1,000,000 Town Hall and Library, and work upon it is to be commenced as soon as practicable.

"THE SCARLET LETTER"

POWERFUL FILM AT THE QUEEN'S.

There is something intensely human and appealing in "The Scarlet Letter," now being screened at the Queen's Theatre. Tragic in its theme, it is, none the less, relieved by the clever handling of the story, which concerns the bigotry and intolerance shown by zealots in the early Puritan settlement in New England. The fall of the village seamstress from grace provide a theme which might easily be crude and unsavoury, but it is made the medium for illustrating a great and abiding love.

Lillian Gish and Lars Hanson share the honours in the leading roles. The former has a big emotional part, and she reaches great heights in her interpretation of it. Lars Hanson, the new Swedish star, gives a very powerful presentation of the implicated minister.

The settings are historically correct, whilst the photography is of unusual excellence. Those who like a gripping film should not miss "The Scarlet Letter."

CHEESE MERCHANT AND AUTHOR.

A FISTICUFF DUEL.

Boulogne, Feb. 6. Fisticuffs have superseded the swords and pistols of the former days in settling affairs of honour.

A cheese merchant named Liborel felt personally insulted by a passage in a local revue and sent his seconds to the author demanding an apology or a boxing match of five two minute rounds under English rules with a doctor in attendance.

The challenge was accepted. The gymnasium was hired and numerous friends were invited. Neither combatant was in training, but the duel was, nevertheless, in deadly earnest.

Liborel bled profusely from the nose from the beginning, but the match went five rounds.

The author was declared the winner on points, but he, too, was soundly thrashed.

They embraced each other, and left the ring, their honour satisfied.

THE SOUTH AFRICAN LIQUOR BILL.

OFFENDING CLAUSE PROBLEM.

Capetown, Feb. 7. The appeal made by Sir Darcy Lindsay for the exclusion of Indians from the white labour clause of the Liquor Bill, which has been given prominence by the Cape Times has aroused very great interest.

Reuter understands on good authority that the spirit of the South African agreement will be maintained.

Mr. Tilden Roos will confer with Mr. Smit to-day and the Cabinet will review the position in every aspect. It appears certain that the offending clause will be dropped or left to an open vote of the House and rejected.

"THE METAL BOX"

Mystery surrounds the death of Miss Evelyn Croom, an elderly lady of limited means, living alone with her maid in London.

The maid, Martha Keene, returned from the Cinema to find that although the light was on in the house, she could get no answer. A constable entering through an open window, found Miss Croom lying on the floor with a fractured skull.

Only two days before her death, Miss Croom gave into the charge of her nephew, Dr. Foster Markwell, a deed box, and entreated him to surrender it to none but herself.

Little did he realize the complications that were to arise but Mr. Thomas Cobb deals with the matter so deftly in his serial story "The Metal Box," that one can forgive Dr. Markwell for his lack of foresight.

COSTLY SINGAPORE HOUSES.

PROTEST AGAINST EXPENSIVE QUARTERS.

OFFICIAL LUXURY.

A meeting of the Singapore Municipal Commissioners, last week, Mr. John Laycock protested against the amount allotted for building Municipal quarters this year, pointing out that the cost of houses to be built for European officers, including the land, would be $40,000, and $8,000 in the case of houses for the subordinate staff.

Mr. Laycock pointed out during the present year the Commissioners were to build quarters for 18 officers at a cost per officer of more than $30,000, and quarters for 79 members of the subordinate staff at an average cost per officer of $6,000. In each case the price was exclusive of land, and when the cost of the land was added it was fair to say that they were to build a house of the former type for $40,000 and of the latter type for $8,000. He thought that those were far too heavy prices to pay for quarters.

There were very few firms in this Colony that could afford to build houses for their staff at a cost of $5,000 each, and these were not No. 1 houses. These houses, which would cost $30,000, would be occupied by officers employed in Class 3. That was too large an amount to spend on an assistant's house. No business firm could afford to do it. They ought to house their employees well, but they ought not to spend as much as they were doing. If the Commissioners gave their employees expensive houses they were raising the latter's standard of living beyond their means, and that was a thing to be deprecated in every possible way.

The same was true of the subordinate staff. There was no reason why their subordinate officers should have houses costing $3,000. That would mean a rental of $30 a month. How many of their clerks could afford to pay that? There was a new type of house that was being built in Singapore that cost about $3,000. It was a type of small barrack house, and a very desirable one, and the Commissioners should build that type rather than terrace houses costing $8,000. Lay-outs had been approved for the erection of a smaller type of house for Europeans, and he suggested that that type should be substituted for these more expensive houses in next year's Budget.

"If partners in firms can only afford to live in flats there is no reason why junior officers of the Municipality should live in houses costing $40,000," Mr. Laycock concluded.

BRITAIN & EGYPT.

PROPOSALS NOT ACCEPTABLE.

Cairo, March 1. The newspapers declare that the British proposals are unacceptable and predict their early rejection. They simultaneously emphasise that the failure to reach an agreement does not mean a break but that the situation will remain as before the conversations.—Reuter.

IMPORTANT STRAITS CASE.

RUBBER RESTRICTION BILL REVIEWED.

Mr. A. V. L. Davies and the Deputy Public Prosecutor (Mr. N. H. P. Whitley) appeared before the Chief Justice (Sir William Morrison) for argument in a case which had been referred to his Lordship for a decision.

The accused in the case were a lorry driver and a lorry attendant, who, it was alleged, brought rubber into Singapore over the Johore Causeway, concealed in a false bottom of the lorry.

At the hearing, Mr. Davies made two submissions, one that the article found in the lorry, did not come within the description of rubber, given in the Ordinance, and the other that the rule declaring that such importation was illegal, was ultra vires.

On the first point, the magistrate found that the article imported came within the description of rubber, but referred the second point to the Supreme Court for a decision.

When the hearing commenced Mr. Davies opened with the point that the article imported was not rubber.

The D. P. P. objected on the grounds that the magistrate had not referred this point, but had found against Mr. Davies.

His Lordship upheld the objection and Mr. Davies then dealt with the question of whether the rule was ultra vires.

Powers of Governor-in-Council.

Mr. Davies said that, briefly, his submission was that the rule applied only to Province Wellesley, the Dindings and Malacca, and that the Governor in Council had no power to make rules under the Ordinance except for those Settlements.

His Lordship referred to the heading of "general" and said that, in his opinion, the heading indicated that Penang and Singapore were included.

Mr. Davies said that that would be reading something into the Ordinance that was not there and referred to section 20 in which the Settlements were specifically mentioned.

He also referred to section 26 which dealt with the subjects for which the Governor in Council could make rules and carry out the purposes of the Ordinance. The Governor in Council could not extend the purview or ambit of the Ordinance.

Mr. Davies then passed on to Ordinance of 1923, but Mr. Whitley objected on the grounds that they could not "look back."

Mr. Davies then left the point for the time being, and went on to suggest that the legislature must have had some reason for making specific mention of Province Wellesley, the Dindings and Malacca. If they had intended to include Singapore and Penang they could, he said, have done it much more simply by using the words, Straits Settlements. They had carefully avoided doing that and they must have had some reason for doing so, although he knew of none.

His Lordship said that he thought the Governor had power to make rules under the heading of "general."

His Lordship: "I don't want to extend the ambit of the Ordinance. I understand it to apply to all parts of the Colony."

Mr. Davies: That cannot be so. The Governor cannot make rules under an ordinance to extend to any place other than that for which it was intended.

Division of the Colony.

The point of whether Mr. Davies could be permitted to review the past Ordinance was then dealt with. His Lordship, after consulting authorities decided that he could.

Mr. Davies said that in 1923 the Ordinance was divided into two parts, one of which referred to Singapore and Penang and the other to Province Wellesley, the Dindings and Malacca. The part referring to Singapore and Penang, he said, was not to come into force until an order was made, and such an order was in fact never made.

Mr. Davies referred his Lordship to the judgment of the learned magistrate in which he said that if the Governor in Council had been empowered to make regulations under the Ordinance for Singapore, such power would have been expressed in unequivocal terms, as it was in fact in the Ordinance of 1923.

His Lordship remarked that this reference to the 1923 Ordinance made Mr. Davies' case very much stronger.

The Deputy Public Prosecutor submitted that the meaning of the Ordinance was perfectly clear. The opening section had no heading at all. Then came part one in which Province Wellesley, the Dindings and Malacca were mentioned, and then the heading of "general."

Under the heading, he said, certain provisions were made so that the purposes of the Ordinance could be carried out. It was necessary to have provisions for the importation of rubber into Singapore and Penang, otherwise it would become exceedingly simple to smuggle rubber into either of those places. He submitted that the word "general" most obviously referred to whole of the Ordinance and that in cases where it was desirable to restrict an Ordinance to one particular settlement, it was specifically stated as in, for instance, the Malacca Customs Rights Ordinance. It had to be taken that an ordinance referred to the whole of the Colony unless legislature plainly showed that it was desired to restrict one certain part.

His Lordship gave judgment, finding that the convictions were correct, and remitting the case to the magistrate for the imposition of sentences.

CHARLES I'S TRIAL CHAIR.

DISCOVERY IN A COTTAGE HOSPITAL.

It is hoped that there will shortly be an addition of great interest to the furniture section of the Victoria and Albert Museum, South Kensington. In the Cottage Hospital at Moreton-in-Marsh (Gloucestershire) has been found a chair which figured in the trial of Charles I., and it is hoped arrangements will be made for its transfer to South Kensington.

An official of the Museum said that negotiations for the purchase of the chair were not quite completed. The final signatures for the sale had still to be appended. "The chair," he said, "is reported to have very interesting and important historical associations. The story is that it was the chair actually used by King Charles I. at his trial. We have made careful inquiries and are quite satisfied, and we have no reason to doubt the authenticity of the story."

"There is, in fact, every indication that this is a genuine one and well worth acquiring by the Museum. We understand the chair was left to the Moreton-in-Marsh Hospital not long ago, to be preserved there, but the authorities are selling it, since a national museum is regarded as a more fitting place for its preservation. There is every prospect that we shall acquire it."

THE TREASURE ON THE MOUNTAIN.

HIDDEN BY THE SON OF THE QUEEN OF SHEBA.

A remarkable story of treasure, believed to have been buried on the slopes of Kilimanjaro by King Menelik, Negus of Shoa, and son of King Solomon and the Queen of Sheba, is revealed in a letter from Mr. P. J. Sinclair, of Marangu, Moshi district, Tanganyika territory.

Mr. Sinclair's story is based on the traditional beliefs of the Abyssinians.

"The Abyssinians believe," writes Mr. Sinclair, "that the first Menelik, Negus of Shoa, came down and conquered the whole of this country to the Rufiji river. When he was old he brought the whole of his army to the slopes of Kilimanjaro, and there he felt his time had come. He ascended the mountain with all his generals, officers and slaves, carrying his treasure, which consisted of stones and gold, and Solomon's ring, which he had on his finger."

"They saw him reach the snow-line on the summit, where clouds hid the view. In the evening the generals and officers came back without the king, who, they stated, had been left by his own orders in the crater on the summit. They then went back to Abyssinia."

"There is a general belief today that a king will eventually arise who will possess the old king's spirit, and who will reconquer this country, which they still call Ethiopia."

The Only Treasure.

Miss Sheila Macdonald, a 22-year-old London girl, who has climbed Kilimanjaro, told an Evening Standard representative that she had not heard of the story.

"I climbed Kilimanjaro in July of last year," said Miss Macdonald, "but I certainly did not look for any buried treasure. I did not know that there was any rumour of any being there."

"The only treasure I know of on Kilimanjaro is an empty wine bottle, which we left with a message attached to it recording that we had climbed to the summit."

A London man who knows the country well, however, said that he had heard of the story of King Menelik.

"I believe that there is also a tradition," he said, "that Menelik's spirit still haunts the slopes of Kilimanjaro, and that throughout the ages he has been on guard over his treasure."

Speculations as to Krakatau.

People recovered from their terror.

Batavia, Feb. 9.

The population of the village of Laboan is gradually returning to its homes, the people evidently having somewhat recovered from their first terror. Speculation is rife as to whether the present quiet state of the Sunda Straits will continue, or whether it is only a temporary phase before greater activity is evinced.

In the Nieuwsblad of Wednesday last an article began "What will the Krakatau do?"

The general opinion is that the recent submarine disturbance is responsible for the most unusual weather lately experienced in Batavia. An authority, however, states that this theory is without foundation.

On Saturday and Sunday last the K.P.M. ran two steamer trips to the scene of the Krakatau. Many people enjoyed a delightful cruise but returned to Batavia only to confess that they saw nothing at all of the submarine explosion. Other people made the trip by road to Laboan, but they also returned disappointed as far as their quest was concerned.

A film of Krakatau taken from one of the boats in the vicinity, and shown at the Drea Park Cinema, reminded one of the great Yalmanga geyser that some twenty-five years ago suddenly appeared in the thermal district of New Zealand about half way between Taupo and Rotorua.

The geyser, which ejected black mud, played intermittently for many years to a great height. Yalmanga was always capricious and elusive. I know of one party of people who camped there for a whole week, and during that time Yalmanga did not choose to "play" by day or by night. About five years the activities of what was the world's greatest geyser, suddenly became abnormally violent, with the result that an eruption, demolished the comparatively new village and town of Yalmanga. It, therefore, appeared and ended with a dramatic suddenness leaving only desolation in black surroundings.

Not An Idle Moment

An exciting match of tennis, a game of shuffleboard, or quoits—then a turn about the decks. You will keenly appreciate the unrestricted opportunity for recreation and exercise aboard the giant President Liners.

The magnificent President Liners are broad of beam and exceptionally steady. All are oil burners, swift express liners.

The public rooms are luxuriously appointed and inviting.

All staterooms are outside, splendidly furnished and equipped with beds—not berths. Each room has hot and cold running water, also fans, wardrobe, thermos bottles and reading lamps. Private bath and showers in connection with many rooms perfect the travel comfort of these giant passenger liners.

The Cuisine is world famous. The deliciously prepared menus will delight you. And how the orchestra adds zest to your dining.

The decks are spacious. The Glass-enclosed Promenade always popular. Deck sports, open air swimming pool, movies, evening dances—everything has been done to make your trip a happy one. Uncalled anywhere—is the courteous and efficient service accorded you by the trained personnel aboard the President Liners.

The great frequency of sailings and the liberal stopover privileges of the Dollar Steamship and American Mail Lines have made these giant passenger liners overwhelmingly popular among travelers.

OUR DAILY TALK ON HEALTH.

BULKY FOOD HELPS DIGESTION.

RIGHT QUANTITY NEEDED.

The sophistication of food substances seems to be pointing toward that time so much exploited by the wagsmiths, when a whole meal will be taken in a tablet.

More and more we are inclining toward meat, eggs, sugars and fats, and less toward vegetables, fruits and bulkier foods.

The ordinary time required for food to be digested and pass through the body is from two and one-half to four days. If the food passes through too rapidly the body does not absorb properly the qualities that it should get from the food.

Cereals Nearly All Absorbed.

Physicians analyzed various food substances in relation to the amount of indigestible residue that they contain. The grains or cereals and the fine, white flours have had most of the indigestible residues removed. They are almost completely digested and absorbed.

Meats, including fowl, fish and shell fish are almost completely digested. It is found that dogs fed almost wholly on meat may have only one excretion in five days. The animals chew bones with their meat and thus obtain indigestible residue. Eggs, milk, sugars and fats are also almost completely digested and absorbed.

The lack of sufficient bulk in the diet and the abuse of the use of cathartics are believed to be responsible for many of our difficulties of digestion. A normal amount of bulk will help the process and will not give rise to the irritative disorders that result from the abuse of cathartics.

A person who eats the proper food in proper amounts and who has regulated his intestinal action will have one normal bowel action daily without any artificial assistance.

Cathartics can be used whenever the person is suffering from the absorption of intestinal poisons. Spoiled foods cause intestinal distress, and must be eliminated rapidly.

In infectious disease most physicians empty the intestinal tract because the intoxication tends to diminish its action. Following surgical operations the intestines may need aid. A proper amount of water will be found of assistance.

SAMOAN UNREST.

400 ILLEGAL POLICEMEN SENTENCED.

Wellington, Mar. 1.
Four hundred members of the Samoan illegal Mau police force have been sentenced in Apia to six months' imprisonment on the charge of intimidating other natives who dealt with European shopkeepers.—Reuter.

New York, Mar. 1.
Yet another distinction has been conferred on Lindbergh. The Woodrow Wilson award has been conferred on him for his "good-will" flight to Central and South America and consists of a medal and $25,000.—Reuter's American Service.

American Express Travelers Cheques

Definition of TRAVELLERS' CHEQUES—

"The system of Travellers' Cheques was originated in 1891 by the American Express Company with the object of creating a form of travel currency which would give the holder the security of a letter of credit and at the same time the convenience of local currency. The Company registered the cheques under the trade name of 'AMERICAN EXPRESS TRAVELLERS' CHEQUES' the word 'Travelers' being spelled with one 'l'. The advantage of the Cheques was so apparent that other banking institutions adopted the system."

Quoted from Pierson's Dictionary of Banking by Wm. Thomson.

PREVIOUS RECORDS
BEATEN.MANUFACTURERS LIFE
INSURANCE CO REPORT.

The forty-first annual report of the Manufacturers Life Insurance Company, of which Messrs. Arnold and Co. are the Hongkong agents, as submitted to policyholders and shareholders at the annual meeting held on the 19th of January, indicates a year of marked expansion.

Another record in new assurance was established. The new business for 1927 amounted to $77,576,008, bringing the insurance in force at December 31st, 1927, to $402,554,431.

The assets of the Company increased by $8,750,000, and at the end of December reached the large sum of $76,483,181. Of this amount over $27,000,000 is invested in Government, Municipal Guaranteed and Municipal Bonds and more than 20,000,000 comprises first mortgages on improved real estate.

The payments to policyholders also constituted a record. Death claims amounted to $2,412,066; matured policies, annuities, etc., $3,219,965 and dividends to policyholders $1,611,217. Payments to living policyholders totalled almost twice the sum paid beneficiaries under death claims. In addition to the above the Company set aside $1,963,852, as dividends to policyholders to be paid during 1928.

Surplus earnings in 1927 were very satisfactory and have made possible an increase in the scale of dividends payable to policyholders for the fourth consecutive year.

WASHING AT STREET
FOUNTAINS.FOUR WOMEN FINED FOR OBSTRUCTION.

The water restrictions in Chinese houses in Wanchai have led the tenants of these houses to do their washing at the street fountains. The police officer prosecuting four women found so doing informed Major C. Willson that these people formed an obstruction and often allowed the water from the street fountains to run to waste. The footpath round the street fountain, said the officer, was rendered dangerous due to the presence of soap suds.

The women pleaded that they were unable to wash their clothing at home due to the water restrictions and were fined $2 each.

The wheat yield, the second largest in the history of Canada, was 440,024,000 bushels, valued at $27,868,000, on the basis of one dollar a bushel received by growers.

THE "FEIYING."

Formerly Belonged to Germany.

The Feiyang, by which Marshal Li and party came down from Canton, is the largest of the Southern Government's flotilla of gunboats. Built at the Stettin naval yards, she was one of a number of gunboats secured by China on that country joining the Allied Powers during the Great War, and has had a decidedly chequered career since.

Formerly under the control of the Peking Government, she was one of the warships which first declared their neutrality from any Governmental control, and subsequently came down South from the Yangtze to support the late Dr. Sun Yat-sen.

When Dr. Sun was forced to flee from Canton, in 1923, owing to the

LARGE OBSERVATORY
FOR MANCHURIA.TO COMMEMORATE THE CORONATION.

Mukden, Feb. 21.

As previously reported, plans are afoot to establish a large, up-to-date astronomical and meteorological observatory in the leased territory of South Manchuria. The observatory, which is to be inaugurated in commemoration of the forthcoming coronation of the Japanese Emperor is planned on a grand scale and, if built according to the plan, will be the foremost in Asia, with few equals in the world. It is to be fitted out with the best and most modern instruments, including a 20 inch reflector and a 60 inch refractor. The cost is figured at Yen 1,500,000, the main portion of which is to be provided by the South Manchuria Railway Co., although the observatory will be established in the joint names of all the Japanese residents in Manchuria. In regard to climatic conditions, scarcely of the air, Manchuria is said to compare favourably with California. The site of the new building has not yet been definitely fixed, but Mts. Samon and Nanshan have been suggested.

Insurrection of his subordinate, General Chan King-ming, the Feiyang was one of the warships which steamed into the front reach at Canton and took part in the memorable bombardment of the city. Admiral Chan Chak was then, as now, in control of the Fleet, and had his flag on the Wing-fung (now rechristened the Chungshan, after the late Kuomintang leader), which led the bombarding fleet upstream.

For a time, the Feiyang did odd commissions, and has in latter years been constantly employed as a dispatch boat between Shanghai, Swatow and Canton.

The Feiyang has a length of 260 feet, a breadth of 29 feet, a draft of 13 feet, and displaces 350 tons. She is equipped with two sets of engines of 6,500 h.p., and develops a speed of 22 knots, which must have accounted for her being renamed the "Feiyang" or Flying Eagle, when taken over with other warships from Germany in 1914.

Of a composite type devised with the view to Colonial and long distance cruising needs, the Feiyang is very well equipped, as regards armament, for a vessel of her size. A 105 mm. gun is mounted forward and aft, while the secondary armament consists of three smaller guns mounted on either side, four machine-guns, and three torpedo-tubes. She has four funnels.

Fully manned, the Feiyang carries 145 officers and men.
